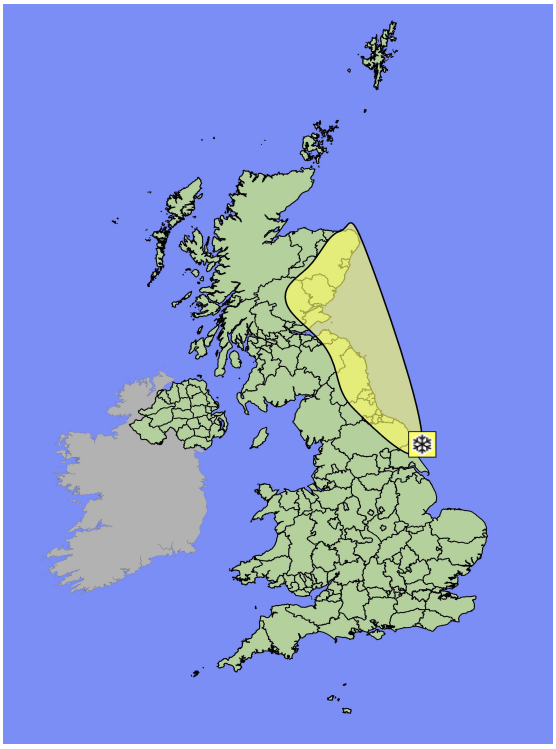
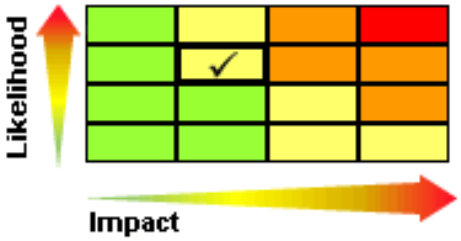
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
A feed of wintry showers will continue through the rest of Saturday and into Sunday, although these will become somewhat less frequent and less heavy. However ice will become an additional concern.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Snow

Valid from 00:05 on Sat, 19th Jan 2013 until 13:00 on Sun, 20th Jan 2013

Further sleet and snow showers will lead to accumulations of snow in places away from the immediate coastal strip, with ice an additional hazard. A further 2 to 6 cm of snow could fall in a few areas. The public should be aware of the continuing poor travel conditions.
